PRO VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE TO REVOLUTIONIZE THE SPORT IN INDIA

The inaugural edition of the Indian Pro Volleyball League has started from February 2nd. The highly anticipated tournament is providing high quality Volleyball action to fans of the sport across the country.

All the six teams have completed their preliminary matches that witnessed some fierce competition among franchisees packing amazing entertainment for all viewers.

Kochi Blue Spikers captain Mohan Ukkrapandian reiterated the fact that PVL is a great step towards the progress of Indian volleyball. He said, "Indian fans celebrated the game in the Jakarta Asian games and Rio Olympics off late. With the Pro Volleyball League, the fans will get an opportunity to cheer for some in-house action at the highest level."

Kochi Blue Spikers, the team owned by the Muthoot Pappachan Group dominated the preliminary matches with clinical victories in the initial round.

An initiative of Baseline Ventures India Pvt. Ltd and Volleyball Federation of India, Pro Volleyball League aims to transform the sporting landscape of the country by elevating the world's fifth most popular sport to the league of the most followed sports in the coming times.
